Conceptual Framework for REVAMP Project

Programme theory: Deployment of Community Health Workers, combined with health system interventions (e.g. infrastructure and supplies) and implemented within a favourable environment at individual, organisational and system levels, will improve: equitable access to quality maternal and child health services and ultimately the MCH health outcomes in Nigeria. CONTEXT at macro, meso and micro levels (politics, finance, health system organisation, culture) PROCESSES OUTPUTS OUTCOMES INPUTS · CHWs possess and Training and · Equitable access to Deployment of CHWs use skills in MCH deployment of CHWs quality MCH services services · Working supplies (more facility births and Improved supplies • Health facilities are system with skilled staff) more effective and · Equitable provision and • Reduced maternal and efficient continued uptake of Better infrastructure child morbidity and • Pregnant mothers use MCH care mortality MCH care more Financial incentives Objective 1 (context and implementation process) Objective 2 (outputs and outcomes)

Objectives 3 and 4 (model, scalability and generalisability)